THE SYBARITE REPORT 2025/26

Audio & Image Usage Disclaimer

This document sets out Sybarite's disclaimer relating to the use of audio and imagery across our content and communications.

Audio Content

Portions of audio may include AI-generated voice renderings of contributors. Other portions feature authentic recordings of contributors' voices. All audio has been included with written permission or appropriate authorisation and is used for informational and illustrative purposes only.

Imagery Content

Imagery used by Sybarite may include:

- Content sourced from the public domain;
- Material provided or licensed with written permission;
- Imagery created at Sybarite's request by contributors or partners;
- AI-generated imagery produced using creative tools.

All imagery is included with appropriate permissions or usage rights and is presented for informational and illustrative purposes only.

General Notice

Sybarite makes no claim of authorship or ownership over third-party or public domain content included herein. All content is presented in good faith and with respect to applicable intellectual property rights.
